

Inspiring Makers

Meet Mohanad from Vertigo Artography

Arts Centre Māketē regular, Mohanad from Vertigo Artography is an international multi award winning conceptual creative art director.

He enjoys experimenting with photography, collage and illustration and his prints are a popular with Ōtautahi locals and tourists alike.

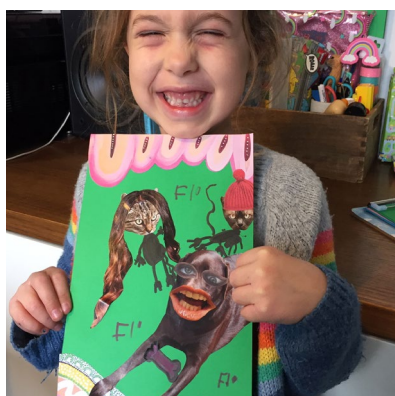

You can see more of Mohanad's work online at www.facebook.com/VertigoArtography/

Crazy collages: having fun creating images

Mohanad's cool collage prints have inspired us to get creating collage artworks at home using pages from magazines and felt pens.

We would love to see your collage artwork or what else Mohanad from Vertigo Artography has inspired you to make, tag us in your posts @artscentremakete and use the #inspiringmakers. Photos can also be emailed to makete@artscentre.org.nz.

WHAT YOU WILL NEED:

- Magazine pages, junk mail, old books, wrapping paper, postcards, photos etc
- Scissors
- Plain paper to stick images to
- PVA glue and brush, or glue stick
- Felt pens, crayons or coloured pencils

STEP 1:

Cut out lots of images from magazines, junk mail, postcards etc.

STEP 2:

Arrange the images on your blank paper until you are happy with your design.

STEP 3:

Glue down your images to your paper using a glue stick or PVA glue and brush.

STEP 4:

Add details to your design with felt pens, crayons or coloured pencils. DONE!

Here are some of our crazy collages!